

DT Person Specification

- A good working knowledge of workshop machinery and hand tools.
- Ability to maintain tools and machinery for Resistant Materials
- A sense of responsibility and high regard for safety. Health and Safety Certification for use of wood/plastic cutting machinery (training can be provided for this)
- An interest and ability in designing and making products (to assist teachers in the delivery of the DT curriculum)
- Able to manage periods of heavy and conflicting demands for self in order to meet deadlines
- Excellent communication skills, written and oral.
- Excellent ICT skills, recognising the tools required to implement the demands and needs of the service.
- Ability to self-manage and motivate, making judgements and decisions where required
- An ability to strike up rapid and friendly rapport with students, parents and staff, with cultural sensitivity, patience and perseverance and an ability to inspire confidence
- Desire to enhance and develop skills through performance appraisal and training
- Recognition of the importance of personal responsibility for data protection and safeguarding
- Supportive of the Jesuit ethos of the school