Home School Agreement

This agreement between the parents/guardians, staff and students of Wimbledon College has regard to our Jesuit Vision for education and all school policies focusing on the all-round formation and care of each person.
Central to this is encouraging excellence and the fullest possible development of talents. The school supports this through its academic, religious and pastoral provision. All parents/guardians, staff and students of Wimbledon College agree to fully support the Jesuit ethos and Catholic life of the school, which recognises that every aspect of its work can affirm the goodness and presence of God and which fosters a faith commitment to Christ.

Parent/guardians have a responsibility to support the school and their child by:

- encouraging and supporting their child's faith journey
- fully supporting the Jesuit ethos and Catholic life of the school
- ensuring that their child attends school every day, on time and with the proper equipment
- providing and maintaining a high standard of dress in line with the uniform policy
- reading, supporting and reminding their child of the College's Behaviour Code
- ensuring that homework is completed to a high standard and checking Google Classroom regularly.
- showing an active interest in any school books brought home
- making the school aware of any concerns which might affect their child's progress or behaviour
- attending teacher meetings/review days and other appointments arranged by/with the school
- making sure that they are fully informed about their child's education
- ensuring that the school is able to contact a responsible adult in case of emergency
- avoiding absence from school except in the most extreme cases [e.g. do not take unauthorised additional days either side of school holidays]
- ensuring that their child abides by all school policies
- encourage their child to be involved in extra-curricular activities

Wimbledon College and its staff have a responsibility to support you and your child by:

- providing opportunities to develop faith through participation in prayer, worship and times of reflection and to develop the students' understanding of Jesuit ethos
- ensuring that each student has the opportunity to achieve their potential by providing a curriculum that challenges students of all abilities
- setting and marking homework in line with the school's Assessment & Feedback procedures
- caring for each individual student's safety and welfare
- informing parents/guardians of their child's progress and of any concerns
- contacting parents/guardians if there is a persistent problem with attendance, punctuality or equipment
- being open and welcoming
- enforcing the Behaviour Code and College Routines
- being a good role model
- keeping parents informed of school activities through regular emails, letters home, newsletters and notices about special events

- In the rare event of a fixed term exclusion from school for more than five school days I agree to transport my child to an alternative place of education as identified by the school to enable him to be educated for the remainder of the exclusion before being re-admitted to Wimbledon College. (This is in line with Government Guidance that Wimbledon College must provide facilities for educating children from the sixth day of a long fixed term, external exclusion.)

Students have a responsibility to support the school and their parents /guardians by:

- doing their best to develop your skills and talents
- growing as men for others; using your talents to help others in school and the wider community
- attending school every day, on time with the correct equipment
- respect learning and support the ethos of the learning within the classroom
- following the Behaviour Code; respecting other members of the school community
- following the College's Routines
- maintaining a high standard of school uniform
- doing all class and homework to the best of their ability, neatly and on time
- taking advice from teachers and parents about ways to improve their work
- catching up on any work they have missed
- showing letters to parents/guardians every night
- taking advantage of the extra-curricular activities that the College offers

E-Safety Agreement and Acceptable Use of ICT

Wimbledon College has a curriculum computer network with full internet access to support learning. Boys will also be issued with a school email account. Boys can use these facilities only when parents have signed this agreement.
[Advice: If you receive abusive messages: do not delete them, you do not have to read them but they may be used as evidence; ask for help from a trusted adult [e.g. parent/carer, teacher, PSA, etc] and do not forward a text, email, photo, video, etc. as you may make the problem worse. You may even be breaking the law.]
