

KS3/KS4

Doing

- Join the school choir, orchestra or brass band.
- Enter the House Music Competition.
- Visit the Horniman museum to look at the instrument collection.

<https://www.horniman.ac.uk/>

- Visit the musical Museum near Kew.

<https://www.musicalmuseum.co.uk/>

- Check out this list of 101 musical things to do in London. There are lots of free activities for all ages.

<https://www.visitlondon.com/things-to-do/whats-on/music/music-things-to-do-in-london>

- Take graded musical exams.

- Go on a London Rocks walk to visit famous musical locations around London.

<http://londonrockwalks.com/>

- Visit the Royal College of Music, South Kensington.

<http://www.rcm.ac.uk/visit/>

- Apply to attend the Cambridge Coral Experience day at Cambridge University.

<https://www.undergraduate.study.cam.ac.uk/finance/music-awards/choral-awards/cambridge-choral-experience>

Watching and Listening

- Listen to a range of different musical genres through BBC Sounds. You can also access a range of podcasts and features on the different genres.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds>

- Go to a West End show.

- Watch 'Why we love repetition in music' by Elizabeth Hellmuth Margulis on the TedEd website.

Reading

- Check the Wimbledon College Reading List

KS5

Doing

- Try composing your own piece of music. You can find loads of hints, tips and help videos on Youtube.
- Take a leading role in the musical accompaniment for the school productions.
- Teach somebody else an instrumental skill. For example, how to play the guitar or the piano
- Create a playlist for each area of study and musical style you are studying that could be passed onto Year 10 students as recommended listening
- Check the website below to see if there are any courses which may interest you.

https://www.futurelearn.com/courses?filter_category=9&filter_course_type=open&filter_availability=started&all_courses=1

- Use Auralia to help train your listening skills.

<https://www.risingsoftware.com/auralia/>

Watching and Listening

- Listen to a range of different musical genres through BBC Sounds. You can also access a range of podcasts and features on the different genres.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds>

- Listen to a performance at The Royal Academy of Music or The Barbican.

<https://www.ram.ac.uk/>

<https://www.barbican.org.uk/>

- Check out what's on at various music venues across London.

<https://www.timeout.com/london/music/londons-best-music-venues-by-genre-1>

<https://www.standard.co.uk/go/london/music/the-small-london-music-venues-you-need-to-have-on-your-radar-a3895311.html>

Reading

- Check the Wimbledon College reading list.